Ashley Jacquinto joins LMS as a Business Development Specialist

(FAIRFAX, VT – 2 January 2024) – Liquid Measurement Systems, Inc. announced today that Ashley Jacquinto has been named Business Development Specialist – Commercial for the Vermont aerospace firm.

She is an accomplished sales professional with over 10 years of successful outside sales experience. She comes to LMS having received recognition for deploying effective global marketing and advertising strategies across multiple social media and advertising platforms, which directly lead to increased sales. She has demonstrated abilities to identify and generate new business leads through various innovative channels.

In her new role, she will concentrate on the emerging commercial market, in which LMS has achieved recent significant successes with MD Helicopter and with DeHavilland.

LMS is a growing company with a big mission: to deliver best-in-industry fuel measurement and management solutions for aerospace and defense applications. The company designs, develops, certifies, manufactures, and supports systems and components that meet technical requirements unique to the customer's application.
